

INTERACT CLUB OF COWES

Youth Service Report for Business Meeting 18- 04- 2019

- * The Interact Club met at the Lord Louis Library on Saturday, 6th April
- * Present : AM-C, Nico, Lucy, Oliver & Jordan.
No apologies received. Safeguarding forms re - the Rotary Club Website were distributed.
- * A cheque for £500.00 was presented to Sarah Leahy, from Layla's Trust at the Assembly at Christ the King College, on Tuesday, 26th March. It was agreed that Layla's Trust should be the nominated Charity for the Interact Car Wash in July.
- * Our Cowes Interact Club leaflet has been submitted to Biltmore Printers.
Now available.
- * Tenth Anniversary – arrangements in hand.
An invoice for £50.00 as deposit for Newclose Cricket Ground has been received and paid. Many thanks to the Rotary Club for footing this. An update on the event is included with this report.
The members wish to invite representatives from the Newport Firefighters and Mr Makunde from St Mary's Hospital.
- * Official invitations will be ready to send out next week.
A list of dignitaries is being prepared. As soon as it is confirmed, invitations with RSVP slips will be sent out.
- * Club Finances : Treasurer, Lucy confirmed £519.15 in the current account, £9.00 in petty cash and £25.00 in subs.
Members voted to pay the subs into the main bank account, as subs are no longer being taken. AM-C to pay in asap.
- * RYLA 2019: The date for the RYLA weekend is now confirmed as Friday 19th to Sunday 21st July, the same weekend as our Car Wash.
Two places have been offered on the course. Our candidates are Jordan and Alanah. AM-C to contact Steve Marriott and reserve places.
- * Exam Season 2019 : It was agreed not to hold formal meetings during May and June to allow members to concentrate on their exams.
The next meeting will be at the Lord Louis Library, on Saturday, 29th June, to give us time to confirm arrangements for the Annual Car Wash in Newport.

Anna Morgan-Crockett
Youth Service Chairman